

LOST BALLS!

REWARD: A COOL CAT

Scooter recently snipped his spheres at a local certified spay/neuter clinic, and having his plums plucked is one of the best things he's ever done. Too many toms are contributing to feline overpopulation, resulting in too many cats dying in kill shelters.

Yep, Scooter nipped his 'nads and isn't looking back. And you can have a cool cat, too. Visit GiveThemTen.org to find low-cost spay and neuter options near you.
